Art & Science Programs

Not Just Art's unique studio classes celebrate joyful learning and expression in a nurturing setting. We invite children of any age to follow their own imagination, strengths, curiosity, and interests. Thoughtfully selected (and always evolving!) open-ended and varied creative art and science explorations encourage children to develop a repertoire of experience and knowledge, play with ideas, experiment and take risks, collaborate, and engage all of their senses. Our curriculum focuses on children's creative thinking process, understanding, and self-expression!
